CALL FOR PROPOSALS

On the occasion of the first edition of the international event EDI GLOBAL FORUM FOR EDUCATION AND INTEGRATION 2022 to be held in Naples from 12 to 14 October 2022, the Fondazione Morra Greco launches a call for proposal to invite the international community working in research and innovation in art education to participate in the development of the program.

EDI Global Forum is a project conceived by Fondazione Morra Greco and realized with the contribution of Regione Campania, which connects institutions and international experts from the educational departments of museums and institutions of contemporary art, to launch a discussion, a sharing and a co-planning on the issues of innovation in art education.

Proposals to submit should fulfil the following requirements:

- Have art teaching activities as topics
- Provide for innovative tools and methodologies of art education in museums
- Propose experiences already tested in museum contexts

For the selected activities, it will be required to hold an experiential workshop that traces the experience through the active involvement of the participants. The workshop will have a maximum duration of 30 minutes.

The deadline for submitting proposals is May 31, 2022.
