CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

On the occasion of the first edition of the international event EDI GLOBAL FORUM 2022 to be held in Naples from 12 to 14 October 2022, Fondazione Morra Greco opens the selections for a group of volunteers who will support the team in the organization and management of activities during the event.

EDI Global Forum is a project conceived by Fondazione Morra Greco and realized with the contribution of Regione Campania, which connects institutions and international experts in contemporary art and education in an ever evolving and articulated context.

With this in mind, the event will be an opportunity to discuss issues of common interest, experiment through practice and make new connections.

The selected volunteers will take part in two training days scheduled at the end of June and early October 2022.

Meeting dates will be defined according to volunteer availability.

The deadline for submitting proposals is September 9, 2022.
